PROLOGUE

The Cooperative Movement in the NCT of Delhi was born on 25th March, 1904 with the enactment of first Cooperative Societies Act No. X. The objective was to take care of the organization and registration of Agriculture Credit Cooperative Societies in its rural areas. In essence, it was very similar to that in other States and Union Territories. Over the years and especially with the enactment of Cooperative Societies Act II in 1912, it gave a boost to cooperatives in areas of urban credit, housing, industrial and consumer products. Delhi Cooperative Societies Act 1972 has also helped to achieve new height especially in cooperative group housing societies. Now, Delhi Cooperative Societies Act 2003 has been enacted keeping in view the current needs of cooperative movement in Delhi. The Delhi Co-op Societies Rules 2007 has been notified w.e.f Oct 2007.

The tremendous success of the endeavour can be gauged from the fact that, by the financial year 2010-11, the total number of Registered Cooperative Societies crossed 5450 having membership of over 13.92 lakhs with their combined share capital of Rs.9914.11 lakhs and a deposit base of Rs.219813.16 lakhs.
THE OBJECTIVE

This charter is a declaration of our Mission, goals, values, efforts, duties, standard
And our sincere commitment to
Cooperative Societies
Set up in the NCT
Of Delhi
AIMS AND OBJECTIVE

The objective and the role of Cooperative Department have undergone a sea-change during the last decade. In order to gear up the cooperative societies to meet the challenges posed by economic liberalization and super fast growth in the field of Information Technology and to protect the interests of the members of Cooperative Societies as financial stakes have become high, the Govt. of National Capital Territory of Delhi has made sincere efforts to prepare a new cooperative societies law to make cooperation a viable economic movement, encompassing simultaneously growth in the field of socio-culture, information technology, health & education through the medium of cooperative societies.

Therefore, the Delhi Cooperative Societies Act, 2003 has been enacted w.e.f April 2005 which aims to consolidate and amend the laws relating to cooperative societies, to facilitate the voluntary formation and democratic functioning of cooperative as people's institutions based on self-help and mutual aid to enable them to promote their economic and social betterment and to provide for better regulation, management, functional autonomy of such societies and for matters connected therewith or incidental thereto in the National Capital Territory of Delhi.

The cooperative department attempts to serve in following ways:

* Cooperation and transparency
* Courtesy and understanding
* Efficiency and professionalism
* Speedy processing and prompt action
* Fair and speedy settlement of disputes
* To act as a friend, philosopher & guide to the cooperatives

Cooperative Principles:-

1) Voluntary and open membership
2) Democratic member control
3) Members economic participation
4) Autonomy and independence
5) Education training and information
6) Cooperation among cooperatives
7) Concern for community

THE TEAM

The Registrar (Cooperative Societies) and Secretary (Cooperation), Govt. of Delhi, plays vital role in monitoring the functioning of Cooperative Societies registered under the Act. The Government also appoints other persons to assist the Registrar as Additional/ Joint Registrars, Deputy Registrars, Asstt. Registrars and other field / ministerial staff. The Government, by general or special order, has conferred on persons appointed to assist the Registrar, the powers of the Registrar under the DCS Act/ Rules. Every person appointed to assist the Registrar exercises the powers conferred on him subject to general guidance and superintendence and control of the Registrar.
