

Delhi 1st state to top ₹3L per capita income

In 2015-16, Delhi's per capita income crossed Goa's to become the highest in the country. The 2016-17 figures released on Monday show that it grew 11% in a year to cross Rs 3 lakh a year (over Rs 25,000 per month) — a first for an Indian state. An average person in Delhi now earns over Rs 3 lakh a year, three times the national average. This is because Delhi's GDP has consistently grown faster than India's (8.8% as against country's 7.1% in 2016-17). P6

प्रति व्यक्ति आय में पहले स्थान पर है राजधानी

राज्य ब्यूरो, नई दिल्ली : उपमुख्यमंत्री मनीष सिंसोदिया ने सोमवार को दिल्ली सरकार के आर्थिक एवं सांख्यिकी निदेशालय की ओर से राज्य सकल घरेलू उत्पाद (जीएसडीपी) 2016-17 के अनुमान पर तैयार बुकलेट जारी की। इसके अनुसार दिल्ली देश के सभी राज्यों और केंद्र शासित प्रदेशों में प्रति व्यक्ति आय के मामले में पहले स्थान पर है। आंकड़ों पर नजर डालें तो राजधानी में रहने वाले लोगों की वार्षिक आय तीन लाख रुपये से अधिक हो गई है।

सिंसोदिया ने कहा कि सबसे अच्छी बात यह है कि दिल्ली में प्रति व्यक्ति आय में साल दर साल बढ़ोतरी दर्ज की गई है। वर्ष 2016-17 में 303073 रुपये प्रति व्यक्ति आय का अनुमान है, जोकि

2015-16 में 273618 रुपये आंकी गई थी। गत वर्ष सालाना बढ़ोतरी 10.76 फीसद दर्ज की गई जोकि राष्ट्रीय स्तर पर 10.2 फीसद रिकार्ड की गई। उन्होंने कहा कि सभी राज्यों व संघ शासित प्रदेशों में दिल्ली का स्थान पहला है, जबकि गोवा 270150 रुपये और चंडीगढ़ 242386 रुपये प्रति व्यक्ति आय के साथ दूसरे व तीसरे स्थान पर हैं। सिंसोदिया ने कहा कि दिल्ली की अर्थव्यवस्था काफी हद तक निरंतर विकास के रास्ते पर आगे बढ़ रही है। दिल्ली की रैंकिंग मध्य प्रदेश, बिहार, पंजाब, हरियाणा और ओडिशा से बेहतर है। दिल्ली का देश की कुल आबादी की तुलना में राष्ट्रीय स्तर पर सकल घरेलू उत्पाद (वर्तमान कीमत पर) में 1.4 फीसद का हिस्सा है।

Delhi's per capita income crosses ₹3 lakh with an 11% increase

HT Correspondent

htreporters@hindustantimes.com

NEW DELHI: Delhi continues to hold the top position among all states and union territories with respect to per capita income. The advance estimate of per capita income of Delhi at current prices during 2016-17 is estimated at ₹3,03,073 against ₹2,73,618 during 2015-16.

Deputy chief minister Manish Sisodia released the Estimates of State Domestic Product - 2016-17 that showed a 10.76% increase in the per capita income of Delhi-ites on a year-on-year basis.

"This reveals an annual growth of 10.76% over the previous year as against 10.2% growth at the national level. Among all states and UTs, Delhi ranks first. Goa is on the second spot and Chandigarh stood third. The per capita income of Delhi is nearly three times higher than the national average of ₹103,818 for the year 2016-17," a government statement said.

The report also revealed a continued double digit growth in the gross state domestic product (GSDP) of Delhi, which is estimated at ₹6,22,385 crore in 2016-17, registering a growth of 12.76%.

"The GSDP in Delhi at the current prices for 2016-17 is estimated at ₹6,22,385 crore against ₹5,51,963 crore in 2015-16, registering a growth of 12.76%. The real growth in GSDP at constant prices in Delhi during 2016-17, is 8.26% as compared to 7.1% at the national level," the statement said.

The contribution of Delhi in total GDP (at current prices) at the national level is 4.08% as compared to 1.4% share in the population of the country, it said.

This reveals an annual growth of 10.76% over the previous year as against 10.2% growth at the national level. Among all states and UTs, Delhi ranks first.

A DELHI GOVT STATEMENT

DELHIITES REMAIN THE RICHEST

In 2015-16 Delhi's per capita income crossed Goa's to become the highest in the country. The 2016-17 figures released on Monday show that the income grew 11% in a year to cross Rs 3 lakh a year—first for an Indian state. An average person in Delhi now earns over Rs 3 lakh a year, three times the national average. No wonder the city is the number one destination for migrants by a huge margin

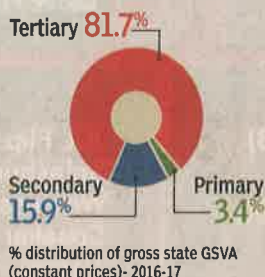

An average person in Delhi now earns over Rs 25,000 a month, highest in the country...

...because Delhi's GDP has consistently grown faster than India's...

...services sector now dominates the city's economy, making it structurally closer to advanced economies...

...real estate, financial services and transport & communications make up over 50% of Delhi's economy

Source: Delhi Govt's Estimates Of State Domestic Product

Delhi's GSDP estimated to go up by 12%

Deputy CM Manish Sisodia releases figures for Gross State Domestic Product

STAFF REPORTER
NEW DELHI

The Capital's Gross State Domestic Product (GSDP) at current prices is estimated to grow by over 12% from ₹5.51 lakh crore in 2015-16 to ₹6.22 lakh crore in 2016-17, according to a report released by Delhi Deputy Chief Minister Manish Sisodia on Monday.

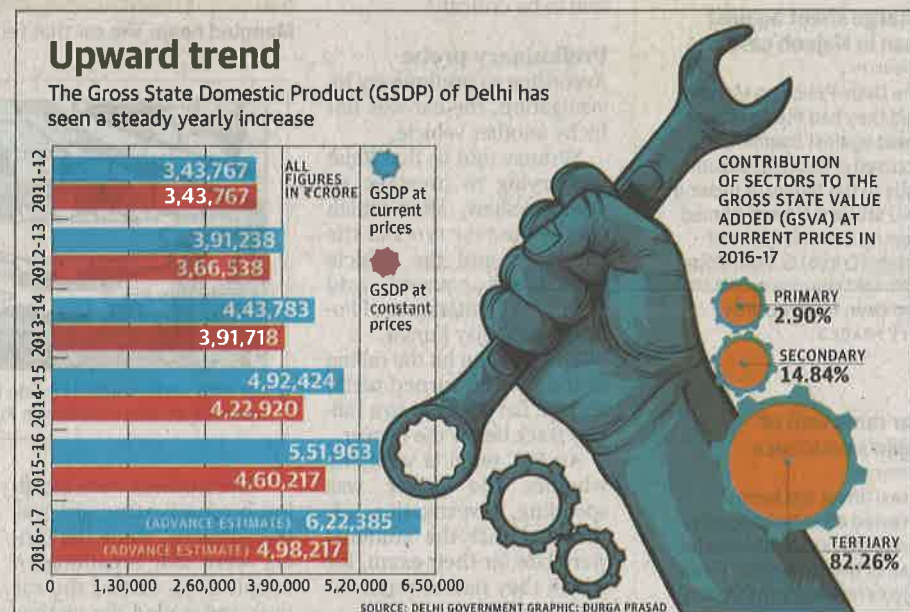

The estimates of the State domestic product of Delhi for 2016-17 showed that the Capital had bested several bigger States, including Madhya Pradesh, Punjab and Haryana. As per the report, while the GSDP at current prices was estimated to grow by 12.76%, the GSDP at constant prices was estimated to increase by 8.26% from 2015-16 to 2016-17.

Big contributor

In comparison, the national growth rate was 7.1%.

Delhi also contributed 4.08% to the national GDP at current prices, while the population of the Capital was 1.4% of the total population of the country.

Referring to the report, which was first tabled in the Delhi Assembly in March, Mr. Sisodia said that the share of the tertiary sector in Delhi's Gross State Value Added in 2016-17 was estimated at 82.26%, followed by the secondary sector at 14.84% and primary sector at 2.90%.

The sector with the biggest contribution with a 29.81% share was real estate, ownership of dwellings and professional services.

Financial services, hotels and restaurants, manufacturing and construction accounted for 14.83%, 11.69%, 8.41% and 4.02%, respectively.

In addition, Delhi's per capita income was estimated to be ₹3.03 lakh in 2016-17, up by 10.76% from ₹2.73 lakh in 2015-16, making it the highest in India. In comparison, the national per capita income in 2016-17 was ₹1.03 lakh.

ONLINE
PARTNER | Money Today

Print Close

Per capita income of Delhi expected to be over 3 times national average: report

PTI May 15, 2017

The per capita income of Delhi for 2016-17 is expected to be over Rs 3,00,000, nearly three times the corresponding national average, according to a report released today.

Deputy Chief Minister Manish Sisodia released the 'Estimates of State Domestic Product 2016-17' here.

"The per capita income of Delhi has been fast increasing year by year. It is expected to be Rs 3,03,073 for 2016-17 against Rs 2,73,618 during 2015-16. This reveals an annual growth of 10.76 per cent over the previous year as against 10.2 per cent at the national level," the Delhi government said.

"The per capita income of Delhi is nearly three times higher than the national average of Rs 1,03,818 for the year 2016-17," it said.

The report says that among all states and/or union territories, "Delhi's rank is first, while Goa is at second with Rs 2,70,150 and Chandigarh stood at third position with Rs 2,42,386 per capita income during 2015-16."

At the national level, the per capita income for the year 2015-16 and 2016-17 were Rs 94,178 and Rs 1,03,818 respectively with the respective annual growth rates of 8.9 per cent and 10.2 per cent.

"It is also to be noted that the per capita income in real terms recorded annual average growth rate of 5.34 per cent for the period 2011-12 to 2016-17.

"At national level, the per capita income for 2015-16 and 2016-17 is estimated at Rs 77,524 and Rs 82,112 respectively showing respective annual growth rates of 6.6 per cent and 5.9 per cent," it added.

Print Close

URL for this article :

<http://www.businesstoday.in/current/economy-politics/per-capita-income-of-delhi-expected-to-be-over-3-times-national-average-report/story/252196.html>

@ Copyright 2010 India Today Group.

Per capita income of Delhi expected to be 3 times national average

The per capita income of Delhi for 2016-17 is expected to be over Rs3,00,000, nearly three times the corresponding national average

The per capita income of Delhi is nearly three times higher than the national average of Rs1,03,818 for the year 2016-17.
Photo: HT

New Delhi: The per capita income of Delhi for 2016-17 is expected to be over Rs3,00,000, nearly three times the corresponding national average, according to a report released on Tuesday. Deputy Chief Minister Manish Sisodia released the 'Estimates of State Domestic Product – 2016-17' here.

"The per capita income of Delhi has been fast increasing year by year. It is expected to be Rs 3,03,073 for 2016-17 against Rs2,73,618 during 2015-16. This reveals an annual growth of 10.76% over the previous year as against 10.2 per cent at the national level," the Delhi government said.

"The per capita income of Delhi is nearly three times higher than the national average of Rs1,03,818 for the year 2016-17," it said. The report says that among all states and/or union territories, "Delhi's rank is first, while Goa is at second with Rs2,70,150 and Chandigarh stood at third position with Rs2,42,386 per capita income during 2015-16."

At the national level, the per capita income for the year 2015-16 and 2016-17 were Rs94,178 and Rs1,03,818 respectively with the respective annual growth rates of 8.9% and 10.2%. "It is also to be noted that the per capita income in real terms recorded annual average growth rate of 5.34% for the period 2011-12 to 2016-17.

"At national level, the per capita income for 2015-16 and 2016-17 is estimated at Rs77,524 and Rs82,112 respectively showing respective annual growth rates of 6.6% and 5.9%," it added.

Business Standard

Delhi's per capita income crosses Rs 3 lakh, three times the national avg

Grew by 10.8% in 2016-17, marginally higher than the all India average growth of 10.2%

Ishan Kumar Bakshi | New Delhi May 16, 2017 Last Updated at 12:30 IST

Advance estimates for 2016-17 show that Delhi's per capita income (net state domestic product) has crossed Rs 3 lakh in 2016-17, which is almost three times the national average.

Delhi's per capita income growth, which had fallen below 10 per cent in 2014-15 and 2015-16 (in current prices), grew by 10.8 per cent in 2016-17, marginally higher than the all India average growth of 10.2 per cent.

Interestingly, data from Niti Aayog shows that in 2013-14 (the last year for which comparable estimates are available), per capita income (NSDP) of Goa was higher than that of Delhi at Rs 224,138 compared to Rs 212,219

But it has now been reported that Delhi now ranks first, followed by Goa and Chandigarh. This implies that Goa's growth rate has slowed down in the past few years.

Printed From

DELHI GSDP GREW BY 12.61% IN 2016-17Tuesday, 16 May 2017 | Staff Reporter | New Delhi*

Rate : 0/5

Like : 0

The Gross State Domestic Product (GSDP) of Delhi grew by 12.61 per cent in 2016-17 as compared to the previous year.

Manish Sisodia, Deputy Chief Minister of Delhi, while releasing the Estimates of State Domestic Product 2016-17 on Monday said, "The economy of Delhi is going forward on the path of sustainable growth in a considerable manner. The rank of Delhi as per the estimates of GSDP is much better than some of the states such as Madhya Pradesh, Bihar, Punjab, Haryana and Odisha."

The estimates have been prepared with the new base year 2011-12. The GSDP, representing the value of all the services and goods produced within the state, is an important indicator to measure the economy.

The GSDP in Delhi at the current prices for the year 2016-17 is estimated at Rs 6,22,385 crore against Rs 5,51,963 crore in 2015-16, registering a growth of 12.76 per cent, Sisodia said.

The real growth in GSDP at constant prices in Delhi during 2016-17 is 8.26 per cent as compared to 7.1 per cent at the national level.

The report showed that Delhi's contribution in the country's GDP (at current prices) was 4.08 per cent even though its population share is just 1.4 per cent of the total population of the country.

The estimates, brought out by the Delhi government's Directorate of Economics and Statistics, have been prepared with the new base year 2011-12.

The share of service sector in Delhi's economy is about 82.26 per cent, followed by the secondary sector 14.84 per cent and the primary sector 2.90 per cent, he added.

According to the Estimates of State Domestic Product the Per Capita Income of Delhi has been fast increasing year by year.

It is expected to be Rs 3,03,073 for the year 2016-17 against Rs 273,618/- during 2015-16. "This reveals annual growth of 10.76 per cent over the previous year as against 10.2 per cent at national level.

"Among all States/UTs, Delhi's rank is 1st, while Goa at second with Rs 2,70,150 per cent and Chandigarh is stood at third position with Rs 2,42,386 Per Capita Income during 2015-16," said Sisodia.